Wulkow VII: Voices

A warm thank for all these inspiring talks, exchanges, networking possibilities that we experienced in Wulkow.

Elisabeth, Lausanne Switzerland

Thanks to everyone for a great three days (feels like 3 weeks!)

Tom, Marseille France

For me, Wulkow has become no less than the utopia of an anti-authoritarian, inclusive academic community, where the better arguments decide, who will win a debate and not the status.

Where the distinction between private life and job gets blurred in the face of enthusiasm and engagement. Where hidden agendas do not drive the sharing of ideas. Where cultural differences and multilingualism are seen as assets and not obstacles for cooperation.

Where colleagues can show the whole smorgasbord of their identities and talents.

Thomas Vogel, Europa-Universität Viadrina, Frankfurt (Oder) Germany

Thank you for the wonderful time, inspiration, fun ...simply everything!

Libor, Brno Czech Republic

It was great working with you, talking with you, making music with you, being with you,... And a special thanks goes to Thomas and David for having created this wonderful meeting - I am sure that professionals of any field would envy us for this little gem of a conference.
